

THE CARBON VALLEY AREA FREE Consumer Report

VOLUME II • ISSUE 2 • FEBRUARY 2011

Serving all of Dacono, Firestone, Frederick, Mead, & parts of Longmont, Erie, & Anthem

0

Community Heroes Awards

Carbon Valley Rotary's 4th Annual Community Heroes Awards was held during the January 18th weekly breakfast meeting at Bella Rosa Golf Course in Frederick, CO. Program sponsors were United Power (for the second year in a row) and High County Millwork.

The Community Heroes Awards recognizes a local firefighter, police officer and teacher for their extraordinary commitment to serving others. These are the public servants who directly impact the safety of the community and mold the future generation of citizens. Carbon Valley Rotary is proud of the people that we are so fortunate to have serving our community in these capacities. Each honoree received a plaque and a new $100 bill, as well as a written summary providing the details for why they were chosen. A total of 12 police officers, firefighters and teachers were nominated this year. The winners were (in order in the photograph):

*Ross Bruce, Frederick
Police Department,*

*nominated by Gregg
Lotspeich, Sergeant*

*Dave Puccetti, Frederick-
Firestone Fire Protection
District, nominated by Ted
Poszywak, Chief*

*Jean Luyendyk, Teacher,
Legacy Elementary
School, nominated by
Sean Corey, Principal*

Rotary is a worldwide
service organization. The
Carbon Valley Rotary

Club is a dynamic group of local business professionals making a positive difference in our area through community involvement with a focus on youth. For more information, visit the club web site at www.carbonvalleyrotary.org.

THE CARBON VALLEY AREA FREE Consumer Report

VOLUME II • ISSUE 2 • FEBRUARY 2011

Serving all of Dacono, Firestone, Frederick, Mead, & parts of Longmont, Erie, & Anthem

0

Community Heroes Awards

Carbon Valley Rotary's 4th Annual Community Heroes Awards was held during the January 18th weekly breakfast meeting at Bella Rosa Golf Course in Frederick, CO. Program sponsors were United Power (for the second year in a row) and High County Millwork.

The Community Heroes Awards recognizes a local firefighter, police officer and teacher for their extraordinary commitment to serving others. These are the public servants who directly impact the safety of the community and mold the future generation of citizens. Carbon Valley Rotary is proud of the people that we are so fortunate to have serving our community in these capacities. Each honoree received a plaque and a new $100 bill, as well as a written summary providing the details for why they were chosen. A total of 12 police officers, firefighters and teachers were nominated this year. The winners were (in order in the photograph):

*Ross Bruce, Frederick
Police Department,*

*nominated by Gregg
Lotspeich, Sergeant*

*Dave Puccetti, Frederick-
Firestone Fire Protection
District, nominated by Ted
Poszywak, Chief*

*Jean Luyendyk, Teacher,
Legacy Elementary
School, nominated by
Sean Corey, Principal*

Rotary is a worldwide
service organization. The
Carbon Valley Rotary

Club is a dynamic group of local business professionals making a positive difference in our area through community involvement with a focus on youth. For more information, visit the club web site at www.carbonvalleyrotary.org.

