FREDERICK-FIRESTONE FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT PROMOTES 5 FIREFIGHTERS, 2 ASSISTANT CHIEFS

On the evening of June 8, 2017, five Firefighters and two Assistant Chiefs were recognized during the Frederick-Firestone Fire Protection District Promotional Ceremony.

The ceremony recognized EMT/Firefighter Adam Campbell, Paramedic/Firefighter Andrew Barsalou, Paramedic/Firefighter Evin Feit, EMT/Firefighter Jeffrey Kesler and EMT/Firefighter Patrick Martin on their new positions with the District.

Also during the ceremony, two District leaders were recognized on their promotions to new positions within the District. Division Chief Doug Prunk was recognized on his promotion to Assistant Chief of Operations, and Battalion Chief Steven Iacino was also recognized on his promotion to Assistant Chief of Planning.

“We are gathered tonight to recognize men and women who have set their sights on things higher than the here and now. Public Servants who have recognized their calling and strive to reach it. These men and women have one thing in common; their understanding of what it means to serve others and their willingness to step forward and lead the charge through personal example. Each brings a diverse set of skills but most importantly a heart committed to Duty, Honor and Compassion. Because of their belief in our organization, what we stand for, and our Mission, Vision, and Values, we have been made stronger and better. I am so proud of the men and women I serve with and you will forever be what I remember and cherish of my time with Frederick-Firestone Fire,” said Fire Chief Ted Poszywak during last night’s ceremony.
